

Implementation of Safe by Design Measures

The NanoReg2 Safe by Design concept aims at identifying, estimating and reducing uncertainties and risks of human and environmental safety along the entire value chain starting at an early phase of the innovation process.

This concept has been studied through 7 industrial case studies covering the three pillars of the Safe by Design concept: safer nanomaterials, safer processes as well as safer products and use.

